

Dalia Arafat

Mobile: +962 777 66 43 52
E-mail: arafat.da@hotmail.com
Date of birth: November 25th, 1993
Nationality: Jordanian, Belarusian
Address: Amman, Tia'a Al Ali

Education:

University of Jordan (Scholarship Holder)

Masters, Psychology / Clinical Track - 2017

University of Jordan

Bachelor, Psychology - 2015

Work Experience:

Since 10/2020: PhD student at the Neuropsychological Treatment Centre (RUB), funded by the DAAD (Supervisor: Dr. P. Thoma)

Jesuit Refugee Services

December 2018- December 2020

Psychologist

The University of Jordan

September 2018 – February 2020

Part time lecturer- Department of Psychology

Conferences & symposiums:

Regional to global transition of refugee mental health towards resilience

July 2019

Participant

The 5th International Jordanian psychiatric conference

October 2018

Presenting my research paper

Volunteer work:

Jordanian Clinical Psychologists Association

March 2019- till present

A member in the Jordanian Clinical Psychologists Association

Jordan River Foundation

Feb 2014 – Feb 2016

Responsibilities : Social and psychological support on helpline 110

Nov 2015- Feb 2016

Responsibilities : Supervision and training

Department of Psychology-JU

May 2014

Event: Syrian Immigration – psychological and social effects on Jordan and the Immigrants themselves

Responsibilities: Research Team : studying the effect on Syrian immigration on Jordanians

Skills:

Excellent Arabic, English, Russian

German Language- level B.1.1

French Language - level 1

Excellent command in Microsoft Office tools

Sign Language/ Jordan - level 2

Publications:

Arafat, D., & Shoqeirat, M. (2019) Executive Functions among Substance-Induced Psychotic Patients in Jordan: A Clinical Neuropsychological Study. Dirasat, Human and Social Sciences, 46(2), 419-432.