

Information for the workshop „Mindreading, Brainreading and Neuroscience“

Program:

Friday (starting not before 13:00)
Focus on Brainreading and Mindreading

John-Dylan Haynes, Charité Berlin/ Bernstein Center for Computational Neuroscience, Berlin
“Brainreading”: Technology, Applications and Ethics

Andrea Kübler, Universität Würzburg
Brainreading for the detection of consciousness and communication in locked-in patients

Katja Valli, University of Turku (Finland)
Brainreading and the Dreaming Brain

Leon de Bruin, Universität Bochum
Mindreading, Brainreading and Cross-cultural Complexity

Saturday (ending at 14:00h)
Focus on Mindreading and Neuroethics

Martin Brüne, Universität Bochum
Neuronal correlates of empathy and mindreading: insights from schizophrenia

Kai Vogeley, Universität Köln
Basic Criteria for Neuroethics

Albert Newen, Universität Bochum
Self-Determination and Neuroenhancements: Are there reasonable constraints for neural interventions that I wish?

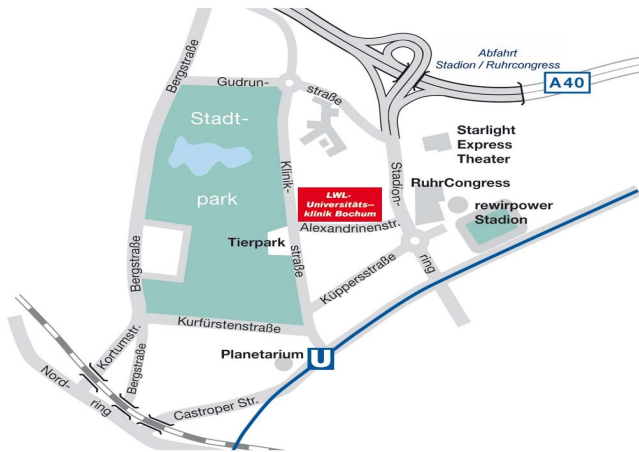

Sabine Müller, Charité Berlin
Ethical and legal issues of neuroimaging-based lie detection

Address/directions:

The conference will take place at the psychiatric hospital at Alexandrinenstraße 1. (www.psychiatrie-bochum.de)

By car, from the direction of A 40:
Take the exit "rewirpower Stadion". Turn right at the third crossing into Kuppelerstraße. At the end, turn right into Klinikstraße. Take the next turn to the right into Alexandrinenstraße.

By car from other directions:
Follow the signs to the RuhrCongress buildings, then follow the map.

By public transport:

At central station, take the trams 308 or 318 (direction to Gerthe) to the stop Planetarium (2 min) and walk along Klinikstraße until you reach Alexandrinenstraße.

Accommodation:

There are a few business hotels in the immediate vicinity to the hospital, e.g. the Marriott at the Stadtpark

Klinikstrasse 43-45, Bochum

<http://www.marriott.de/hotels/travel/qbcoc-courtyard-bochum-stadtpark/>

The city center can easily be reached by public transport via central station and is still in walking distance. There is an Ibis Hotel next to the Station:

Universitätsstraße 3, Bochum

Tel.: (+49)234/3331-1

<http://www.ibishotel.com>

Low price accommodation can be found at the Kolpinghaus near central station:

Maximilian-Kolbe-Str. 14-18, Bochum

Tel.: 0234/60190

Fax: 0234/65852

http://www.kolpinghaus-bochum.de/kh/kh_bochum/

A link to the detailed program and the abstracts will soon be available on Albert Newen's homepage.