

The Role of the European Court of Human Rights and the Council of Europe in Armed Conflicts

Wednesday 21st October, 3:00pm
Online Event

Hundreds of applications land at the European Court of Human Rights during and in the aftermath of military confrontations between the member states and as a result of military operations of the member states overseas. This webinar will consider if the European Court of Human Rights and the Council of Europe can do anything to prevent human rights violations before, during and after military interventions.

Chair

Dr Vassilis Tzevelekos (University of Liverpool)

Panellists:

Dr Aurel Sari (University of Exeter) Overreach: Should the ECHR apply to the Battlefield?

Prof Kanstantsin Dzehtsiarou (University of Liverpool) Why Are the Court's Interim Measures During Armed Conflicts Controversial?

Dr Isabella Risini (Ruhr-University Bochum) The strengths and limitations of inter-State proceedings under the ECHR in cases related to military confrontation.

Dr Jane Rooney (University of Durham) Hanan v Germany: A Re-Evaluation of Extraterritorial Airstrikes at the European Court of Human Rights?

Andrew Forde (NUI Galway) In Pursuit of Effectiveness: The Role of the ECHR System in Contested Territories
