

Name: Gerd Waldhauser

Nationality: German

ACADEMIC QUALIFICATIONS

2006 – 2011 PhD, Lund University, Sweden (Supervisor: Prof. Dr. Mikael Johansson)

1999 – 2005 Diplom-Psychologe (MA in Psychology), Saarland University, Germany

EMPLOYMENT

Since 2015 Postdoctoral researcher; Department of Neuropsychology, Ruhr University Bochum, Germany (Prof. Dr. Nikolai Axmacher)

2014 – 2015 Postdoctoral researcher & lecturer; Department of Clinical Psychology, University of Konstanz, Germany (Prof. Dr. Brigitte Rockstroh)

2014 – 2015 Clinical psychologist in psychiatric training; Clinic for Forensic Psychiatry and Psychotherapy, Centre for Psychiatry Reichenau, Germany (Prof. Dr. Klaus Hoffmann)

2012 – 2014 Postdoctoral researcher (funded by the Swedish Research Council); Cognition and Oscillations Lab, University of Konstanz, Germany (Dr. Simon Hanslmayr, Prof. Dr. Thomas Elbert)

2006 – 2011 Research assistant/ PhD candidate; Department of Psychology, Lund University, Sweden

2006 Research scientist; Experimental Neuropsychology Unit, Saarland University, Germany (Prof. Dr. Axel Mecklinger)

RESEARCH

I employ EEG/MEG, fMRI and TMS to investigate the neural dynamics of memory intrusions and memory control in healthy adults and in connection to clinical disorders such as PTSD. I am interested in bridging psychotherapeutic ideas with empirical research.