

Social Cognition, Engagement and the Second-Person Perspective

Interdisciplinary Conference, University of Cologne, May 25-27 2012

Speakers and Discussants

Cristina Becchio (Torino)
Alan Costall (Portsmouth)
Chris Frith (London)
Uta Frith (London)
Thomas Fuchs (Heidelberg)
Shaun Gallagher (Memphis)
Tobias Grossmann (Leipzig)
Riita Hari (Helsinki)
Günther Knoblich (Budapest)
Agnes Kovacs (Budapest)
Joel Krueger (Copenhagen)
Cade McCall (Leipzig)
Victoria McGeer (Princeton)
Albert Newen (Bochum)
Vasudevi Reddy (Portsmouth)
Erik Rietveld (Amsterdam)
Norihiro Sadato (Tokyo)
Leonhard Schilbach (Köln)
Tobias Schlicht (Bochum)
Natalie Sebanz (Nijmegen)
Corrado Sinigaglia (Milan)
Nikolaus Steinbeis (Leipzig)
Bert Timmermans (Köln)
Kai Vogeley (Köln)
Wako Yoshida (London)

Organization

Prof. Dr. Tobias Schlicht (Bochum)
Dr. Leonhard Schilbach (Köln)
Dr. Nikolaus Steinbeis (Leipzig)
Dr. Bert Timmermans (Köln)

Registration

Participation is free but places are limited.
Please register (until April 30th) by email to Nike Zohm (nike.zohm@rub.de)
Further information:
www.rub.de/philosophy/2ppconference

Call for Posters

We invite poster submissions from all disciplines to topics related to the main themes of the conference.
Posters should be directly submitted in pdf format or as an abstract of approx. 500 words by email to Nike Zohm (nike.zohm (at) rub.de) before March 1st, 2012.

This conference is part of the research project „Being addressed as You“, funded by the Volkswagen Foundation.

Further information:
www.rub.de/philosophy/socialcognition/Home.html

