

Bochum-Cagliari Workshop

FIRST JOINT BOCHUM-CAGLIARI WORKSHOP ON NON-CLASSICAL LOGIC

We are pleased to announce that the first Joint Bochum-Cagliari workshop on nonclassical logic will be held at the Ruhr-Universität Bochum, Institut für Philosophie II, on Thursday, 19th (starting at 3:30 p.m.) and Friday, 20th April 2012. The aim of this informal meeting is to disseminate results obtained by the research groups on nonclassical logics active in both universities and foster future collaboration between these communities, as well as with other researchers and scholars in the field. The focal points of this meeting include:

- Quantum logics and quantum computational logics
- Paraconsistent and constructive logics
